

PATRONIZE BLACK RESTAURANTS

As you know, COVID-19 has had a devastating impact on small businesses – particularly, Black small business. As of May 22, 2020, Sacramento County is now allowing restaurants to open for dine-in service. Below you will find a list of Black-owned restaurants. Some changes have been made for your safety including:

- ▶ Tables will be spaced 6 ft. apart
- ▶ Parties should be limited to household members
- ▶ You may be required to wait outside if a table is not available
- ▶ If you must stand in line to pay, please adhere to the 6 ft. social distancing requirements
- ▶ Menus will be disposable
- ▶ It is encouraged that you use means of electronic payment
